BAPTIST W. M. S.—

The Sallie Boyd Circle of the Baptist W. M. S. met with Mrs. R. W. Fountain Monday afternoon. A devotional exercise was led by Mrs. W. F. Cooper and a business meeting conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Edmund Hudson. These ladies have completed the Mission Study book they have been using and will next begin the study of a Home Mission book, Oak and Laurels.

The Bettie Buck Circle was unable to have a meeting on account of sickness in a number of the homes.

The Hattie Conner Circle met with Mrs. John Bonneau. A devotional exercise and business session were held. This circle is beginning the study of a mission book on Africa. There were 9 members present. Circle number four met at the home of Mrs. W. O. Vaughn. A most interesting lesson on the Book of Revelation, taken from Bible Questions and Answers, was had. There were seventeen present. Mrs. S. A. Taylor was a visitor to this circle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Barnard were guests of relatives in San Antonio.

Mrs. E. F. Blocker returned to her home in Elba Friday from a visit to relatives in Birmingham and Montgomery.

WANTED: Logging contractor with outfit to log Sawmill, capacity Ten Thousand Feet daily.

Dean S. Murphree, Box 265, Troy, Alabama.

Misses Carrie and Lillie Mae Vaughn left Monday for a visit to their grand-parents at Ramer. They will also visit relatives in Montgomery before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Taylor and children left last week for Jupiter, Florida, where they will make their home. The Elba people regret to lose this good family, but wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Straws from the soda fountain often add the necessary inducement needed by the child who doesn't like to drink milk.

Oil of cedar distilled at a small cost from cedar wood waste is used to impart the necessary cedar aroma to boxes and containers used as cigar boxes which are made of other woods.

Holman's Mill Items

We are glad to learn that Mr. Wilson's folks are improving. They have been having the flu.

Mr. Knight, who has been real sick is improving. Also little Miss Lottie Compton. Mrs. Harrell's many friends are proud to know they have moved back to this community.

Misses Ethel and Ollie Tompkins called on Miss Willie Pearl Stanton Sunday afternoon.

Mr. G. T. Willis and family visited his sons, H. N. and J. W. Willis Saturday and Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Rigo Allen is seriously stricken with paralysis. Hope he will soon recover.

Mrs. Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. Holman visited the bedside of Mr. Knight Sunday.

Mr. Carl Williams, of near Troy, dined with his Uncle, S. C. Boswell, Sunday.

Mrs. H. N. Willis spent a while with Mrs. Herbert Compton Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Yarb Lassiter and children from near Newbia, visited her daughter, Mrs. Edloe Nelson Sunday.

Little Coleman Compton spent Saturday morning with little Ora Willis.

The people around here would be glad to have some pretty weather, as so much rain is a lot of hindrance to the farmers about starting their crops, also gardens. But we should not complain so much about the Lord's work, for we people do not deserve the blessings we receive from Him. I do not think, so let's all count our blessings instead of grumbling always about the ways of providence.

Miss Joy Cosby and her father, Mr. J. W. Cosby, spent Tuesday in Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Talbot were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick Wednesday.

Miss Francis Stapleton, of Dothan, was the guest of Mrs. Forest Talbot last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and children left Saturday for Flat Top, Ala., where they will reside in the future. These are two well known and prominent families and Elba people regret very much to give them up, but wish them success in their new home.

The Greeks originated short-hand.

From Chestnut Grove.

Many of the farmers are busy plowing when the weather is good, and we are sorry to say some of the boys are having to stop school to help in this work.

The health of our people is very good at present, only a few have bad colds.

Misses Eunice Day and Lennie Stokes spent last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tillman.

Those who dined at Mr. John Crenshaw's Sunday were: Rev. C. W. Walton, Louie and Curtis Helms and Miss Connie Pearl Dismuke.

Misses Eunice Day, Lennie Stokes, Ollie Ziglar and Foster Ziglar visited Miss Stokes' parents Sunday.

Misses Nollie Mae and Gladys Carroll, Risa Lee Avant and Emmet Carroll dined with Miss Cesta Clower Sunday.

Mr. J. V. Dismuke visited his son, Mrs. G. C. Rogers Thursday night.

Misses Cesta Clower and Louie Crenshaw spent Wednesday night with the latter's sister, Mrs. Wilks Avant.

Mr. J. W. Dismuke spent last week-end with his son, Mr. E. M. Dismuke, of Brockton.

Miss Ruth McKinney spent Friday night with Misses Ollie and Louie Crenshaw.

The singing at Mr. John Crenshaw's Friday night was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ward and Miss Olga Strickland dined with Mr. G. W. Rogers and family Sunday.

Mrs. Cassie Pittman and Mrs. Callie Strickland and children visited Mr. Walter Pinckard and family Tuesday night.

Miss Ethel Lee Mobley returned home Tuesday from the hospital at Troy, where she has been for three weeks. We are glad to have her back with us.

Mrs. Jesse Dismukes and Miss Willie Mae Rogers visited the bed-side of Miss Ethel Lee Mobley Saturday afternoon.

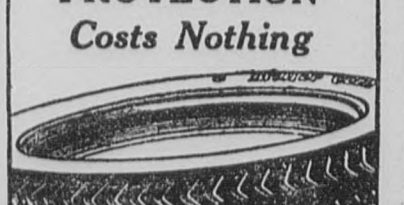

Mrs. Easter Dismuke and daughter, Connie Pearl, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Helms.

On February 11, the boys of Chestnut Grove went to Brundidge and played a game with the first and second team, which was a disadvantage to Chestnut boys. The wind blew so hard that our boys couldn't use the long shots successfully. The score was 54 to 9 in favor of Brundidge. This was one of the severest defeats we ever suffered.

On February 13, Brundidge boys came down and we played another game. The score was 21 to 11 in favor of Chestnut Grove.

Dr. Moore was formerly pastor of Court Street church, has been presiding elder of Montgomery district, and has served the most important charges of the Alabama conference. "If you miss hearing him you will be the loser."

It was the pastor's privilege to preach at both services for Brother M. T. Moore at New Brockton last Sunday, filling in for Dr. Hurt, presiding elder.

At the quarterly conference Saturday there was a good attendance and a fine report made by the stewards, which showed their esteem for their hard working pastor. And that dinner on-the-ground! They had everything from soup to greens, except the articles mentioned.

Dr. Hurt held the Elba quarterly conference on Monday, and a good report was made by the stewards. And they were very much edified by his two Sunday sermons.

Mrs. Gordon Prescott is seeking after a subscriber list of the Alabama Advocate. It is better every week, and holds something for every member of the family. At the club rate of a dollar every family ought to have it in the home. If you would like to make a present to your friend you cannot do better than to make it a year's subscription to the Advocate.

The pastor wants to include in the program this year, the activities of the laymen. And if he can get a layman for a lay-speech every Sunday afternoon in the country churches it will be appreciated by them very much.

There will be services at Ham's next Sunday at 3:00 o'clock.

Less Acreage to Cotton And More to Feed And Food Crops Is Suggestion of Agent: Good Advice Given to Boys of Cotton Club

Ten acres to the plow is the latest acreage that should be planted to cotton this coming season in Coffee County. Corn, peanuts, syrup, potatoes and plenty of velvet beans should be grown in abundance this year, since there is a tendency to plant everything in cotton. From the present outlook, sweet potatoes will be as high next year as the choicest Florida oranges are now, and molasses will sell for a nickel a bushel and a very small crop at that. The outlook for peanut prices are brighter for next market season, and when everybody is planting the flower gardens and front yards in cotton this spring, suppose you use a little discretion and cut your acreage to the bone, fertilize twice as high as you have ever before, prepare to cultivate well and fast, fight the weevil, and we believe that you will be safe from the howling winds of a possible adverse cotton season, and your credit maintained.

IN MEMORY OF PENN BOYD

It is profound sorrow that I attempt to do honor to the memory of the late Penn Boyd, who has just "passed over." When I last laid him good-bye I did not expect it to be a long farewell and that I would not see his open face again. I mourn him not only as a fellow kinsman but as a Southern gentleman of high rank. To me he was the embodiment of the true meaning of the expression, "a good man." Notwithstanding the infirmities which his advanced age had brought him, his intellect was as brilliant, his judgment as keen, as that of a man much younger. Old age touched him but gently, and he died before his mind was impaired or his physical infirmities became his master.

As a good man he has written his virtues in the hearts of his friends. The love and confidence of the people that knew him is attested by the fact that he continuously served them until he was called, as all faithful men are, to service above, and by this act he has unconsciously showed his virtues to his friends.

REV. AND MRS. TAYLOR ENTERTAIN AT INFORMAL TEA.

A very beautiful affair was given at the Baptist parsonage Tuesday from five to nine, P. M., when Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Taylor were host and hostess at an informal tea.

The entire population of Goshen and surrounding country has been very much excited over his disappearance. Concocted river and every body of water of any size has been dragged for his body. So much anxiety was felt that the Goshen school was dismissed for the day Friday.

No trace of his body has been found, which leads to the belief that he was going to some distant definite body of water, as he had left a note to his wife stating that his body would be found in a "watery grave."

He left a check from the co-operative bank which he had endorsed, in a place where his wife would find it. It had been learned that he bought a quart of oil late Wednesday afternoon for the Baptist Church, Rev. and Mrs. Taylor, in the living room. Mrs. W. F. Cooper and Mrs. W. O. Vaughn invited the guests to the dining room. Mesdames Dismukes, Brooks, C. E. Dorsey, Diamond Pierson, Willie Michel and Miss Lurline Ham served hot tea, sandwiches and pink and green salads. Mesdames Dan Prescott, Walter Whitman and Fannie Cunningham were in the guest room. Mesdames W. M. Tucker, J. B. Hudson, and John Bonneau in the parlor, Mesdames D. C. Rhodes, Eva Bowden and Miss Vesta Odell in the pastor's study to assist in entertaining.

During the calling hours a program, composed of musical selections and readings was given by some of Elba's most talented ladies. Piano selections were played by Misses Hattie Mae and Annie Laurie Bullard. Readings by Mrs. Sam Rowe, violin numbers by Mrs. J. A. Carnley and Mrs. Carrie Vaughn, and vocal solos by Mrs. Mercer Rowe.

The entire membership of the Baptist Church, Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Taylor, were the invited guests on this delightful occasion. The purpose, on the part of the Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Taylor in giving this social affair was to increase the feeling of good fellowship among the church members and to make each one feel at home and welcome in the parsonage.

OPP WEEKLY NEWS NOW IN NEW HANDS.

Announcement was made last week of a change in the ownership and management of the Opp Weekly News, the paper now being under the guiding hand of Mr. J. L. Kimbro, former editor of the Florida News. Mr. Gus J. Bryan who has successfully edited the paper for the past year and two has not made public any plans for the future.

Editor Kimbro knows how to make a paper interesting each week, and wherever he has been located always enjoys a splendid patronage. We trust that his efforts will be crowned with success in his new field at Opp.

The best way a farm boy can learn better farming is to become a member of an agricultural club which county agents are now organizing.

All banks and business houses in Monroeville closed an hour to take part in a county-wide meeting of farmers called by the county Farm Bureau and county agent Pearson. The bankers and business men of Monroeville are cooperating with the farmers for mutual good.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that petition has this day been filed in the Circuit Court of Coffee County, Alabama, in Equity, to have the disabilities of non-age removed of George Buren Lindsey, a minor, over the age of 18 years, said petitioner being joined with his mother, Mrs. Pearl Lindsey as Guardian of the said George Buren Lindsey, in the filing of said petition.

This the 9th day of February, 1925.

OBITUARY OF MRS. H. W. DEAN.

On Wednesday morning, February 4, 1925, the death angel visited the home of H. W. Dean, and claimed for his victim the devoted wife and mother, Mattie Lou Dean. She was before her marriage, Mattie Lou Willis, daughter of C. T. Willis. She was born Oct. 9, 1888. Was married in 1903 to H. W. Dean, and to this union were born five children: three boys and two girls, all of whom survive her. She also leaves a father, three brothers and four sisters, besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She will be sadly missed by all.

She was the victim of pneumonia, having lived only five days after taking sick. Every one knew her condition was serious, although her death came as a shock to her people and friends, as they did not realize the end was so near. She was conscious to the last.

Grieve not loved ones for we have assurance of her being at rest with the Saviour, for on Monday night before she died, she sang "Heaven's My Home" and "We'll Work Till Jesus Comes," with the sweetest tone that could be voiced, especially with one so weak. She bore her suffering with great patience, complaining but very little through her sickness. Again I repeat, grieve not for one who hath gone on and already passed through the chilly tide of death, for we are taught that death hath no terrors, and we must realize as sure as we live we are sure to pass through the valley of death. But we have the promise of our blessed Saviour of an eternal home in Heaven. He has gone to prepare if we come unto Him and abide in Him.

Weep not dear ones, for her toil on earth is over, but let us watch and pray, while lingering here below, that we may enter not into temptation, but ever be ready when death calls us home, that we may meet our Saviour and loved ones there to abide forever and forever. True, 'tis sad to part with our loved ones here, but we must submit to the dear Lord's will for He never makes any mistake. True still, we sometimes can't understand some things that occur here, but we must remember with a sober heart that God's work is miraculous and we should pray to understand his meanings. We have the assurance of our loved one being at peace with the Saviour from the sweet smile she wore when called to rest. Oh that we may live so as to meet her in that beautiful land on high where trouble never mars, but joy and peace forever reigns in that land just over the stars.

Everything that human aid could perform was done to relieve her suffering, all to no avail, for our blessed Lord, in His infinite wisdom, saw fit to call her home and she responded to His call without a struggle. Funeral services were held at Zion Chapel on Thursday, Feb. 5th, at 11:00 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. W. T. Gridar, of Elba. The remains were laid to rest in Zion Chapel cemetery, there to await the resurrection of our risen Christ. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Her Sister-in-law, I. M. W. CARD OF THANKS.

We take this method of thanking the good people of this community for their kindness to us during the sickness and death of our wife and mother, Mattie Dean. We do especially thank Mrs. Emily Willis, her step-mother, also Dr. Bragwell for his medical aid. It is beyond our power to bless them, but we can ask God to bless them.

DEATH OF MRS. HUGHES.

Friends throughout the county will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. A. Z. Hughes, whose death occurred on January 27, 1925, at her home on Enterprise, Route 4. Mrs. Hughes was 72 years of age, and leaves her devoted husband, with whom she had spent 52 years of wedded life, and five children to mourn her loss.

The body was laid to rest at Bethany church, funeral services having been conducted by Rev. Boswell, of Newton, assisted by Rev. Moore, of New Brockton.

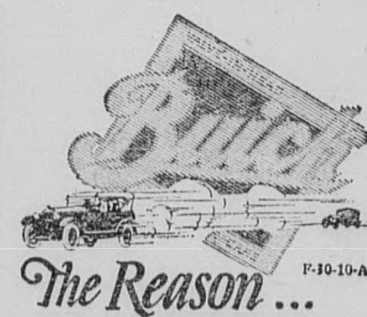

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Martin, of Enterprise, visited relatives in Elba Sunday.

Dr. E. C. Moore, president of D. I. S., Brewton, Ala., preached a very helpful sermon at the evening service Sunday. We were sorry to have to conflict with the Union service of the christian culture program. Dr. Moore took a collection for the scholarship fund of his school and received over two hundred dollars.

We are glad to see the Ladies' Missionary Society studying the "Task Ahead." It is a book compiled by our workers on the firing line, telling just what we are doing to carry out our great program over the world. We wish everybody could know exactly what our church proposes to do. They would be more reverent toward it and give it more consideration.

There will be services at Liberty at 3:00 P. M. Sunday. We hope you will have your Advocate subscription ready to hand in at the service.

Mr. Sam Windham has been confined to his room for a number of days on account of the flu. We hope for his early recovery.

NEGRO THREATENS FARMER IN LETTER AND IS SHOT.

Troy, Ala., Feb. 23.—Will Bean, a negro, was wounded late Saturday when he was shot by Porter Holmes, a white farmer, and serious injuries inflicted in his arm and neck, just below the ear. It is reported that Holmes resented a letter the negro had written to him in which he stated that he would kill him. Holmes went in search of the negro and found him riding in a Ford car out on Montgomery road near Troy.

When the negro saw Holmes he jumped from the car and ran and Holmes fired on him. Holmes was accompanied by his father, R. H. Holmes. He was arrested and lodged in jail, but later made bond for $500. A warrant has also been sworn out for Bean for writing the threatening letter.
